ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 80-81

TO: ALL COUNTY WELFARE DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: PROVISIONAL REFUGEE SOCIAL SERVICES PROGRAM ALLOCATIONS FOR OCTOBER-DECEMBER 1980

REFERENCE:

The Department of Social Services, Office of Refugee Services (ORS) is currently operating under a Continuing Resolution (Public Law 96-369), which provides limited funding for the Refugee Resettlement Program for the period October 1, 1980 - December 31, 1980. California has recently received a Social Services allocation of $1.5 million for the October - December 1980 quarter. At this time, it is uncertain as to what the social services allowances will be for the remaining quarters of FFY 1981.

Attached is the provisional allocation for the October - December 1980 quarter. The allocation is based on prior expenditures; higher of the two quarters: April - June 1980 or July - September 1980 and increased by a nine percent factor (1.09). Counties with minimal prior expenditures have received an allocation in the amount of $300.

This provisional allocation is based on the best information the Department has. It is the Department's intent to cover all October - December 1980 expenditures up to the limit of available funding.

We regret the delay in notifying County Welfare Departments of their October - December 1980 allocation; however DSS did not receive notification from DHHS of California's allocation until very late in the quarter. Although another Continuing Resolution (P.L. 96-536) has been passed to provide funding for the January - March 1981 quarter, allocations of funds have not yet been made to the states. DSS will advise CWDs of their January - March 1981 allocation as soon as possible after notification of California's allocation for that quarter.

If you have any questions regarding this allocation, please contact Carolyn Moore at (916) 323-3320 or Fiscal Policy and Procedures Bureau at (916) 445-7046.

Sincerely,
